Family Owned Church Supply Store - Three Generations and Counting!

That, in a nutshell, is the story of the Stemper family's involvement with Wisconsin's and one of the nation's leading firms in the church goods and religious gifts industry. It's also a story of a commitment to excellence that has been, and will continue to be, a key ingredient in the company's success.